The following are the results for the 2011 43rd Annual Northglenn Judo Championships held at Legacy High School, Westminster, Colorado. Over 200 athletes from 10 states competed in the event which was hosted by Northglenn Judo Club and sanctioned by USA Judo. For adults in the Olympic Weight categories, place winners earned national ranking points from USA Judo. Northglenn Judo club won the overall club award with 99 points, followed by Hyland Hills Judo Club and the Olympic Training Center. $100 was awarded to both Hyland Hills Judo Club as the Colorado team with the most points and USA Starts (Oklahoma ) as the non-Colorado team with the most points (excluding the host club). The winners and runner-up in each Olympic weight class received each prizes as well.

Highlights:

2010 World Championship Team members Michael Eldred, Kenny Hashimoto, Jacob Larson, Allison Clifford, and Ann Shiraishi all went undefeated to win their respective divisions. In the Women's 70kg (154.3 lbs.) division, former nationally ranked competitor Natasha Newson (Colorado Springs, CO, Olympic Training Squad) came out of retirement and won the division. On her way to the championship, she defeated #2 ranked Samantha Bleier (Colorado Springs, CO, Olympic Training Squad.) with a throw for Ippon (instant win). In the Men's 73 kg (160.9 lbs.) Northglenn's Alonso Wong, 2011 class 5A State Wrestling champion, was defeated by World Team Member Michael Eldred in the gold medal match, but then went on to defeat teammate Joseph Hashimoto to secure the silver medal in the division.
